FUNCTIONS

As in real skydiving, playing Skydiving Extreme demands fast reflexes and steadfast concentration. The key to winning is memorizing the button configuration on your PlayStation Controller so you can pull off formations faster than rival teams. Take a moment to study the controller button configurations.

After your team leaps from the plane, you need to successfully complete more four-way formations than the rival team. Doing each formation correctly will slow your fall, allowing you time to execute more tricks. To perform a four-way formation, correctly enter the button sequence displayed on the screen before time expires. Keep doing the tricks until your team runs out of altitude and is forced to break up and pull. If you miss a formation, you'll have to start again from the first formation in the sequence.

TOURNAMENT

Single-player Tournament mode is a challenging international competition that pits your team against the best jumpers in the world.

SELECT

After selecting the Tournament mode option on the main menu, choose from one of the six international teams. Unless you're loading a saved game, your team will begin playing in the fledgling E-Class. The computer will always choose your opponents.

Whenever you lose a match, you'll arrive at this continue option screen. Because Skydiving Extreme is a challenging game, you have unlimited continues. Keep jumping until you win and move up to the next class!

RANKING

CONTINUE

If your team ranks high enough, you'll see this screen when you leave Tournament mode. Enter your name or initials so you can be recognized on the Skydiving Extreme Ranking Screen!

OURNAMENT CLASSIFICATIONS

Skydiving Extreme Tournament mode features six challenging skill classes. Each class is progressively more difficult than the previous level. E-Class is the easiest classification and serves as a freeflying sort of ground school for the complex classes to come. S-Class is the toughest. As you progress, you'll learn to enter specific buttons on both sides of the controller at near-blinding speeds. Attack formations are always the toughest to. complete!

Whoa! Did you mess up really bad? Is the competition hitting you with impossible Attack formations? Did the doorbell ring? Unlike real life. Skydiving Extreme allows you to freeze the action. Press the START Button to pause and check out the nifty options listed below:

RETRY OUIT EXIT

Aborts your jump and allows you to try again. Quits Tournament mode and returns to the main menu. Cancels pause and continues the current lump.

BATTLE

Did friends drop in? There's no need to bail—take them on in two-player Battle mode!

After selecting the 2P Battle mode option on the main menu. choose two of the six evenly matched international teams in the game.

ATTACK

Depending on player skill, choose the Attack formation difficulty levels.

ATTACK A Formations use directional buttons and button patterns only. ATTACK B Formations use patterns and single buttons.

ATTACK C Formations are single buttons (hardest).

CLASS

After you've selected teams and Attack formations, choose the jump class or level of difficulty. Player can select different classes, so this is a practical way to handicap experienced gamers.

STAGE

You're almost ready to do battle. First you'll need to select the stage where you want to jump.

In a one-player game the camera is always focused on your team. In two-player competition, the camera will always track the team with the most altitude. The formation pattern displays for the controllers of each team will appear on the right and left sides of the screen.

SIGHT

The camera indicator at the top of the screen will point to the team in view

As in Tournament and Training modes, either player can press the START Button to activate the Pause Menu.

OUIT EXIT

Aborts and restarts the contest. Quickly restart a 2P Battle match with new teams and/or a new stage. Ouits and returns to the main menu.

Returns to the jump in progress.

HOW ABOUT A REMATCH?

After you complete your jump, you'll see a replay. There's also an option to retry or exit the stage.

Restarts the contest with same teams. Choose new teams, class or stage. Exits back to the main menu.

TRAINING

IIt takes plenty of practice to land as Tournament Champion. Perfect your skills in Training mode!

TEAM SELEC

As in Tournament and 2P Battle modes, Training mode begins with the selection of your team, but you won't have to worry about other teams or nasty Attacks here. The focus is on the pacing and the precision of your team formations.

CLASS SELECT

Select the difficulty of your training at the Class Select menu. It's a good idea to study the last class you were stuck on in Tournament mode. If this is your first time playing the game, select E-Class.

STAGE SELECT

Select any stage in the game. This is a great way to famillarize yourself with the varied weather conditions and environments your team will encounter in Tournament mode.

TRAINING

Training mode is an important feature for mastering the timing of formation transitions and the accuracy the button combos necessary for difficult formations.

ACCEPT

This meter displays the transition time available before each maneuver. You must start the formation pattern before this timer runs out.

INPUT

This meter displays the amount of time you have left to enter the button combo for each formation. It begins when you press a button.

المالية

REPLAY AFTER THE FREEFALL After you complete your jump, you'll see a replay. There's also an option to retry or exit the stage
